

Tucson's The Ritz Carlton, Dove Mountain Offers Estate Homesites

June 11, 2014 -

The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain announce the release of its estate homesites located in the community's coveted Rockpoint Ridge enclave.

The 16 spectacular mountain-view sites are positioned along twenty-seven holes of Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf and just steps away from The Ritz-Carlton hotel, featuring a world-class spa and fitness center and three restaurants. Custom estate homesites range in size from two- to seven-acres and are priced between $600,000 and $1.2 million. A legacy membership to The Golf Club at Dove Mountain is included with each homesite purchase.

"We are thrilled to be announcing our newest offering at The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain and look forward to building on last year's success," said developer David Mehl. "The estate homesites offer easy access to our signature amenities while still maintaining a sense of escape. Members can hike the area's best paths in the morning, play nine holes in the afternoon and enjoy unparalleled desert sunsets from their homes in the evening. There are endless opportunities for both adventure and relaxation."

Situated on more than 800-acres of desert terrain and only a 20 minute-drive from downtown Tucson, The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain is the perfect setting for highly customized private homes, emphasizing the indoor-outdoor active desert lifestyle. In addition to custom homesites, eight customizable floor plans are also available. Management by The Ritz-Carlton ensures flawless personalized service.

Members have access to extensive amenities representing a variety of recreational offerings, including a world-class 27-hole Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course, the Golf Club at Dove Mountain offering members-only dining, four tennis courts, premier fitness facilities, and event space for large and intimate gatherings and 25 miles of hiking, biking and horseback riding trails. The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain continue to experience significant momentum, with over $15 million in sales during 2013 and nine homes currently under construction.

For more information visit www.theresidencesdovemountain.com.