

CONTROVERSY

WILL HE PUSH CLINTON TO THE LEFT?

p.6 Bernie Sanders

TALKING POINTS

Wives who get paid like employees

p.17

PEOPLE

Still angry after all these years

p.10 Art Garfunkel

THE WEEK

THE BEST OF THE U.S. AND INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

Brave or foolish?

How Sen. Paul forced a compromise on metadata surveillance

p.4

This week: Living in Arizona

1 ◀ Paradise Valley Built in 2010, this five-bedroom home sits high on 3.4 acres of hillside. Electronic recessed glass walls bring the outdoors in; the heated saltwater pool's bar, spa, and lounging area bring the indoors out. Features include media and game rooms, two full kitchens, and a master suite with two bathrooms, two walk-in closets, a workout room, a wet bar, and a fireplace. $7,495,000. David Larchez, Silverhawk Realty/Top Agent Network, (480) 822-8898

2 ◀ Phoenix Set on a private street in the north central part of the city, this Federal-style five-bedroom home was built in 1938. The renovated house features a gourmet kitchen, two fireplaces, a wine cellar, a sun-room, and a new addition with a master suite. The landscaped property includes a tennis court, gazebo, and sundeck. $1,875,000. Cheryl Barnoli, Russ Lyon/Sotheby's International Realty, (623) 764-8153

3 ▶ Marana This four-bedroom house lies on a Jack Nicklaus golf course in The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain. The interior features hardwood floors, a wine room, smart-home technology, and a great room with a tongue-and-groove ceiling. Outdoor amenities include a one-bedroom casita, pool with spa, and an outdoor kitchen. $1,999,000. Rich Oosterhuis, The Residences at The Ritz-Carlton, (877) 451-7205

4 ▶ Sedona Built in 1999, this three-bedroom house has unobstructed views of Cathedral Rock. The 5,573-square-foot residence features a great room with floor-to-ceiling windows, flagstone floors, and a gourmet kitchen. Outdoor amenities include a kiva fireplace, a hot tub, a tiled patio, and a built-in barbecue with counter area. $1,849,000. Bruce Tobias, RE/MAX Sedona, (928) 204-1950

5 ▲ Phoenix This five-bedroom hacienda, named Casa Blanca, was built in 1975 in the Arcadia neighborhood. The interior includes beamed ceilings, ornamental tile-work, and a master suite with a fireplace. The 1.64-acre property features a pool, an exterior fireplace, and a fully equipped guesthouse. $3,600,000. Shawna Warner and Rebecca Clayton, Russ Lyon/Sotheby's International Realty, (602) 743-7006

Steal of the week

6 ▲ Tucson Built in 1946, this four-bedroom house sits on 0.23 acres. The interior features pitched wood-beamed ceilings, tile floors, scored-concrete floors, two fireplaces, and a picture window in the kitchen with views of the yard. Additional amenities include a pool and an Arizona room: a semi-outdoor room with glass walls and flagstone floors. $349,000. Alan Aronoff, Long Realty, (520) 631-7222